Re: Second Annual Houses of Worship Safety Symposium – Chico

The Chico Police Department is hosting their second annual Faith-based Organization and Houses of Worship Safety Symposium in partnership with the Butte County Sheriff's Department, the FBI, the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, and the Central California Intelligence Center. The presentation will take place in Chico on August 12 from 9:00 AM–12:30 PM.

Topics covered will include active assailant preparedness, de-escalation strategies, and non-profit security grant preparation. The grant preparation presentation last year was excellent with detailed information about the application process.

Please scan the attached QR code for registration information. The location for the event will be provided once the application is completed.
